

Librarian's Corner

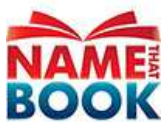

Kolter Elementary ♦ Cynthia Oubre, Librarian ♦ October 2013 Vol 12

Notes from the Librarian

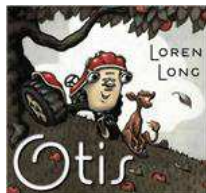

IMPRINT READING

Due to an unforeseen illness R. J. Palacio, author of Wonder, was unable to attend the Imprint reading on September 29th.

On October 27th, Katherine Applegate, author of The One and Only Ivan and numerous other children books will be at Johnston MS on October 27. This event is FREE!

NTB practices have begun. 3-5 practice on Mondays from 3:15 to 4:15 and K-2 practice on Wednesdays from 3:15-4:15. This is in preparation for December's evaluation to determine team members.

JUMPSTART READ

For the Record Day was fabulous. The total figures are not in yet, but the reading responses have been phenomenal. Our parent volunteer readers were Melissa Bayne (Ms. Silverman's class), Flora Clark (Ms. Yeager's class), Bernice Blum (Ms. Glapion's class), Tanya Radoff (Ms. Wyatt's class) and Blanca Gonzales (Ms. Yerkovich's class). We thank you very much for your time with our kids.

Also, a special thank you to our parent coordinator for this event, Courtney Cernosek.

All kinder students received a Rice University Reading Reward complimentary ticket to the Rice Basketball game on Saturday, December 7th.

Upcoming Events

Nov 1: Book character day

Nov 18-22: Scholastic Book Fair

Quote of the Month

Books are for use. Books are for all; or every reader his book. Every book it's reader. Save the time of the reader. A library is a growing organism. Shiyali Ranganathan (1892-1972)

coubre@houstonisd.org
www.Kolterlibrary.wikispaces.com